Clutter is stressful.

Whether it's kids toys strewn across the living room floor, a closet bursting at the seams, or shelves packed full of stuff, clutter has a way of sneaking into our houses and staying put. Then when we try to declutter we don't know where to start and often find ourselves overwhelmed by the mess.

So, how can we tackle our clutter in a way that will get rid of it and keep it gone? It's easy to clean up your house and keep it that way for a day - it's the days that follow that impose a challenge.

Over these next 5 days, we are going to learn together how to get rid of clutter once and for all.
